Inno receives two internationally recognized GOOD DESIGN™ 2016 awards

Basso and Naula have been granted the internationally recognized GOOD DESIGN™ 2016 Award - The world's most prestigious, recognized, and oldest Design Awards program organized annually by The Chicago Athenaeum: Museum of Architecture and Design in cooperation with the European Centre for Architecture, Art, Design and Urban Studies.

BASSO Y design Harri Korhonen

Basso Y is a streamlined chair with remarkable sitting comfort in the distinguished family of meeting chairs. Basso creates discreet reliability and even playful ambiance particularly in meeting rooms. Available with or without armrests.

NAULA design Mikko Laakkonen

The totally wooden coat rack Naula has pegs shaped as truncated cones that penetrate the stem, functioning as hooks. The free standing coat rack is available in natural or stained oak, mixed or monochrome.

GOOD DESIGN™ is the oldest Awards Program organized worldwide. For 2016, the Museum received submissions from several thousand of the world's leading manufacturers and industrial and graphic design firms from around the world representing the most important and critical mass of influential corporations worldwide in the design industry from over 55 countries. GOOD DESIGN™ was founded in Chicago in 1950 by the former MoMA curator Edgar Kaufmann Jr., together with such pioneers in modern design as Charles and Ray Eames, Russel Wright, George Nelson and Eero Saarinen.
